How would you know if God were calling you to be a priest?

During the Easter season, our diocese is organising a Sunday afternoon gathering to answer that question.

Men between 18 and 40 years are invited to this “Come and See” meeting on Sunday April 28th from 2pm – 5pm at Mardyke House, Cork.

Parish Assembly Meeting

A meeting of the Clonakilty Parish Assembly takes places in the Parish Centre on Monday April 29th at 7.30pm. All members are kindly requested to attend.

Trocaire boxes

Remember the box you got at the beginning of Lent? It’s time to bring it back to the churches! Many people have already returned theirs and some people have also handed in envelopes for the Trócaire appeal for Malawi. Thank you.

Giving by cheque

Some people prefer to give their offerings to their parish and dues to support the priests by cheque. And that’s fine and is appreciated. However, so that the cheque can be lodged it must be payable to the name of the bank account. Offerings for the parish must be payable to Clonakilty Parish, Ardfield Parish, Kilmeen Parish etc. Seasonal offering (or dues) for the priests can be payable to Clonakilty Parish (because we have a separate account from which the dues are then divided). Many people are also making their regular and once-off donations to the parish and to the priests by using the Donate button on the parish website. It’s a very secure and confidential way of giving. Thank you for your generosity.

Recent Baptism:

We welcome into our Christian Community Twins: Saoirse & Darragh Murray, Clonakilty who were baptised recently.
