How secure are you online?

MTU in Cork is looking for people 65 years and older to take part in a cyber safety research project at MTU campus on the 17th of June. Participants will receive a €40 One-4-All voucher and gain valuable cybersecurity tips during a one-hour session. All they need to bring is a phone or laptop. The study will run from 10am to 5pm, with each participant scheduled in a one-hour slot alongside others. To sign up, simply contact via email cyber-advice@cyberskills.ie.

Clonakilty Church Cleaning: takes place this coming Sat- June 15th after 10am mass. Anyone who has spare time is welcome to help with the cleaning – it would be much appreciated.

Bon Secour Sisters mark 200th anniversary of founding

The Bon Secours Sisters in Cork recently celebrated the bicentenary of the congregation with Mass at which Bishop Fintan Gavin was the principal celebrant.

The congregation was founded in France in 1824 in the years after the French Revolution.

May the Lord Walk with us!

Last Sunday, our parish community walked with the Lord in the Corpus Christi Procession. Thanks to everyone who helped organise it and to everyone of all ages who took part.

There's a slideshow of photos of the Procession on the parish website. Have a look!

Thanks also to Lidl in Clonakilty who kindly donated ices for all the children. They licked them up!!

Summer Mass times

During the months of June, July and August, there will be fewer Sunday Masses celebrated in the Family of Parishes. This is to make it possible for each priest to have two weekends as a holiday.

In our parish, it means that — like last year — the Mass at Darrara will be celebrated on alternate Sundays.

The full schedule of Masses is available online at www.onefaith.ie
Weekday Masses are unaffected. The weekly Masses in the Hospital and Nursing Homes as well as the Convent also continue.

Formation and Training for Ministry

Training for new (the people who volunteered before Easter) and serving Ministers of the Eucharist will be on Tuesday, 11th June at 7.30 pm in the Parish Centre. Training for new (the people who volunteered before Easter) and serving Ministers of the Word is on Wednesday, 12th June at 7.30 pm in the Parish Centre. This will be with personnel from the Mission and Ministry Office of the Diocese.

Both evenings will involve parishioners of Clonakilty, Kilmeen and Castleventry, Ardfield and Rathbarry and Timoleague.

Prayers for Exam students

We continue to keep the young people who are doing exams in our prayers these days.
